Blooms: Please continue to bring your blooms to our meetings for show and tell (even if you have only one bloom).

It's a good time to plant camellias, so be sure to check out our next plant sale. Spring planting allows the plants to establish themselves during our long warm season. Below are a few varieties currently available through our plant sale:

Ray Gentry Variegated

Rebel Yell

Show Time

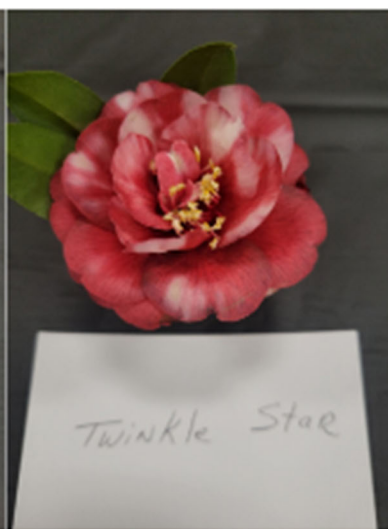

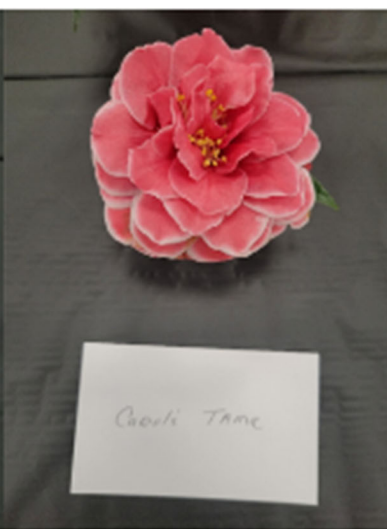

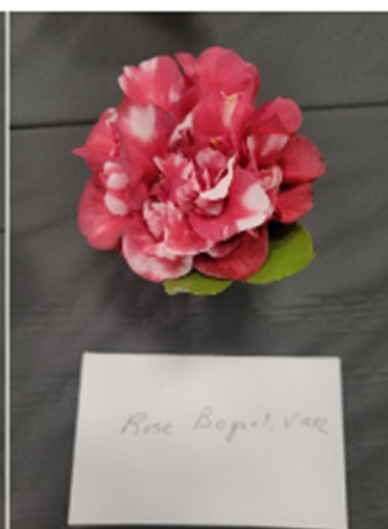

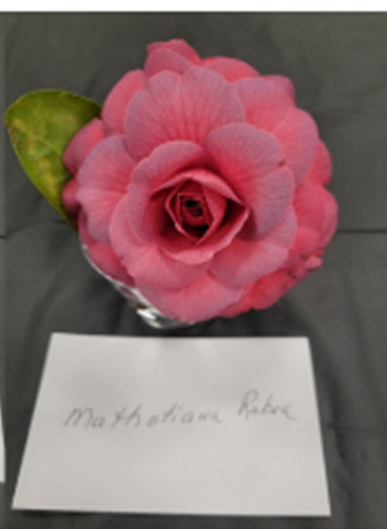

Sweet Auburn

Due to the cold spell leading up to our highly anticipated annual show, this year's event took on a new twist as an exquisite showcase of over 400+ stunning blooms. Attendees were treated to a breathtaking exhibition of floral beauty, with each bloom meticulously displayed for all to admire.

In addition to the awe-inspiring display, we offered a diverse selection of plants for sale, providing guests with the opportunity to take home a piece of botanical splendor. We've been thrilled to hear all the great feedback about the beautiful blooms the purchased plants have recently produced.

Check out these breathtaking blooms submitted to us after the show from plants purchased at the 84th Annual Show:
